

Offered at $1,895,000

tucked away on a cul-de-sac in Westside Alamo, this beautifully updated custom home is situated on private ~.78 acre grounds. Four bedrooms, three bathrooms + cabana house, three-car garage. Spacious living room finished with rich hardwood flooring, recessed lighting, plantation shutters, a marble-faced fireplace with carved wood surround and a door to the wrap around deck. Updated kitchen appointed with hardwood flooring, an island topped with a five-burner Thermador gas cooktop, white cabinetry (some with glass fronts), recessed lighting, and a casual dining nook with a French door to the rear grounds. Stainless steel KitchenAid appliances include double ovens & a dishwasher. A pass through from the kitchen opens to the family room which features new wide-plank hardwood flooring, a floor to ceiling stone-faced fireplace, a ceiling light/fan, and recessed lights. Just off the kitchen and living room, the separate formal dining room offers hardwood flooring, a chandelier, a tray ceiling with crown molding, and windows with plantation shutters to the lovely rear grounds. The master bedroom has new carpeting a ceiling fan/light, plantation shutters, and a French door to the wrap-around deck. The master bathroom is enhanced by his and her vanities, tile flooring and counters, a large stall shower, a jetted tub, and a sizable walk-in closet. Other features of the home included new wide plank hardwood flooring, refinished hardwood floors in living and dining room, new carpeting, new hardware and light fixtures, freshly painted interior and exterior and large storage areas off garage. Private and lush, the rear grounds offer mature trees, lawn area, gardens, a pool, and an array of greenery and flowers. The pool house is finished with new carpeting, a mini-refrigerator and sink, a fireplace, and a full bathroom.

L

320 South Avenue
Westside
Alamo

